

Teatro Símurgh

“Madame Aissata, the Lady of the weddings”

Technical information

Duration: 65 minutes.

Public: Adults, young people and adolescents.

Language: The text of the play is in Spanish. The songs are in different African languages. For English speaking audience a screen with subtitles is necessary.

Performance space: The show was conceived for theatres but may easily be performed in auditoria, conference halls and other non-conventional spaces such as the main halls of universities and schools; it may also be performed outdoors in small squares, courtyards, cloisters, amphitheatres etc.

Dimensions of the space: Minimum of 4 meters wide and 4 meters deep.

Scene: For theatres the black box is necessary.

For non-conventional spaces a black background 4 meters wide and 3 meters high is necessary.

Lighting: 8 (eight) Fresnel or PC reflectors of 650 watt 3 (three) Lycos reflectors of 7550 or 1000watt. Dimer and 6 channel console. To create environments of four different colors, jellies are needed (amber, blue, red, green and lilac), or an automatic color changing light. Dimmer y console with 12 channels.

In case of the organizers cannot satisfy these technical needs they are asked to inform the company of the actual lighting situation in time in order to find a suitable alternative in terms of what is actually available

Sound: In the case of large non conventional spaces, enclosed or open-air the use of a radio headset microphone for the actress is necessary.

No. of people traveling: Two people (an actress and a technician)

Assembly: A day for the assembly of lights and a technical rehearsal.

Other technical requirements: The performance space and the room for the actress must be perfectly clean and available to the company three hours before the show.

Warnings:

- Started the show is not allowed to enter late spectators, except that, in specific situations, conditions arise for which the company considers the opposite to be appropriate.
- No video footage, photos or audio recordings of the show are made for persons not authorized by the company.